

|                                       |                                                                                                               |
|---------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| ClientKilnworth Events Ltd | ContractorOkoro &amp; LindProducer: Niamh Gallagherniamh@okorolind.com+44 20 7946 0321 |
|---------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Subject: Kilnworth Payments Summit 2026, event coverage

|                                             |                                                   |
|---------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------|
| Shoot dates1 conference day, 8:00–18:00 | Delivery dateRecap film within 3 working days |
|---------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------|

Deliverables

1× recap film, 2 min (16:9)
3× 30s clips for social (9:16)
Raw footage on a shared drive

Pricing options

|                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                     |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| As quotedScope, crew and deliverables as in the estimate below.€9,737.60 net | With same-day edit · RecommendedA 60s highlight film shown at the closing session.€11,600 net |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Cost breakdown · As quoted

| No.                       | Item            | Scope                                                            | Net (EUR) |
|---------------------------|-----------------|------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| 1                         | Pre-production  | Run of show with the organiser and a site visit the day before.  | 800.00    |
| 2                         | Film crew       | Two camera operators, sound and a producer on site.              | 2,200.00  |
| 3                         | Equipment       | Two camera kits, a gimbal, wireless audio and a small light kit. | 2,400.00  |
| 4                         | Logistics       |                                                                  | 380.00    |
| Production costs subtotal |                 |                                                                  | 5,780.00  |
| 5                         | Post-production | Recap film, three social clips and a quick sound mix.            | 2,900.00  |
| 6                         | Other costs     |                                                                  | 300.00    |

|                                          |                  |
|------------------------------------------|------------------|
| Subtotal                                 | 8,980.00         |
| Production service fee (10% of 5,780.00) | 578.00           |
| Production insurance (2%)                | 179.60           |
| Total (net)                       | €9,737.60 |

Additional options

|                                                       |          |
|-------------------------------------------------------|----------|
| Full recording of one session, 2 cameras, per session | €250 net |
| Interviews with speakers, 5 short clips               | €900 net |

Selected work

okorolind.com/work

Information

1. One shoot day covers up to 10 hours on set. Time beyond that is billed as overtime at 150% of the hourly rate, for every hour started.
2. The price includes up to 2 rounds of edit revisions. Further changes are quoted separately.
3. All amounts are net. VAT is added at the applicable rate.

---

Prepared with Vidaset · vidaset.app